ORDER

19 This matter having come before the Court on November 12, 2014 at a regularly scheduled
20 status conference with William J. Hughes, Jr., Esq. and Kimberly Maxson-Rushton, Esq. of the law
21 firm Cooper Levenson, P.A. appearing on behalf of Defendant Mohammad Safdar Gohir, and 22 Assistant United States Attorney Roger Yang appearing on behalf of the United States.

23 Upon Defendant's oral Motion for an Order, the Court considered Defendant's requests: 1/
24 an Order to United States Marshals Service, Nevada Southern Detention Facility to allow the 25 Defendant computer access for five (5) hours per day for five (5) days each week; and 2/ an Order to 26 permit the Defendant's local counsel, Mr. Jason Earnest, Esq. to bring a laptop into the Nevada
27 Southern Detention Facility during his attorney visitation for the purpose of counsel and Defendant
28 Gohir to joint reviewing discovery.

1 The Court having heard the arguments of counsel and there being no objection by counsel for the 2 Government and for good cause appearing therefor renders the following decision:

3 ON THIS 17th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2014,

4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the United States Marshals Service and the Nevada
5 Southern Detention Center are hereby directed to permit Defendant Mohammad Safdar Gohir 6 computer access for five (5) hours per day for five (5) days each week; and,

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States Marshals Service and the Nevada
8 Southern Detention Center are hereby directed to permit Defendant Mohammad Safdar Gohir's local 9 counsel, Mr. Jason Earnest, Esq. to bring a laptop into the Nevada Southern Detention Facility for 10 joint use by Defendant and his counsel during attorney visitation for the purpose of jointly reviewing 11 discovery; and,

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the United States Marshals Service has reasonable 13 grounds for objection to the content or scope of this Order, the United States Marshals Service shall 14 promptly notify the Court and counsel.
